

THE PEARL ATTACK ON HARBOR

— A PACIFIC HISTORY

THE ATTACK ON PEARL HARBOR: A PACIFIC HISTORY

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 2, 2016

7:00PM Keynote Address

Mallot Room, University of Kansas Memorial Union

Ronald H. Spector, “The Asia Pacific War: Forgotten, Remembered, and Imagined”

8:15PM Reception

SATURDAY DECEMBER 3, 2016

Centennial Room, University of Kansas Memorial Union

8:30 –
9:00

Coffee Reception

9:00 –
9:15

Opening Remarks

Beth Bailey

Center for Military, War, and Society Studies

9:15 –
10:45

Production of Publics

- Samuel Yamashita, Pomona College
“Popular Japanese Responses to the Pearl Harbor Attack”
- Benjamin Uchiyama, University of Kansas
“The Pearl Harbor Attack as Media Event in Wartime Japan”

- Beth Bailey and David Farber, University of Kansas “A Pacific Nation? Race, Space, and Place in the Aftermath of the Pearl Harbor Attacks”

11:00 – Production of Knowledge
12:30

- Dayna Barnes, Stanford University
“Postwar Planners and Responses to Pearl Harbor”
- Nicole Barnes, Duke University
“Worldly Medicine in Wartime China: An Exploration of Pearl Harbor’s Unintended Consequences”
- Christopher Capozzola, MIT
“The Politics of Anticipation: Manila as a Pre-War City”

12:30 – LUNCH
1:30

1:30 – Re-conceptualizing Empire and Nation I
3:00

- Rana Mitter, University of Oxford
“Identities and Alliances: Personal Reflections and Rethinking China’s Place in the World, 1941-1945”
- Daniel Immerwahr, Northwestern University
“‘American Lives’: Pearl Harbor and the U.S. Empire”
- Ethan Mark, Leiden University
“Pearl Harbor and the Asian Cultural Turn”

3:15 – Re-conceptualizing Empire and Nation II
4:45

- Jeremy Yellen, Chinese University of Hong Kong
“Pearl Harbor and Japan’s Imperial Moment”
- Kate Darian-Smith, University of Melbourne
“Pearl Harbor and Australia’s War in the Pacific”
- Yujin Yaguchi, University of Tokyo
“Remembering Pearl Harbor in Japan—Does it Still Matter?”

5:00 – Wrap-up and Conclusions
5:30